MEET OUR SPEAKER: JOOST SANDERS

Love beyond borders. As I (Joost) immigrated to the US as a teenager, I fell in love with the next-door neighbor, Anna. We have been married since 2012 and have two sons. Our lives revolve around our local church in the city of Kiel, WI, where I have the privilege of being the youth pastor. We live on a hobby farm, where we raise our own meat, vegetables, and fruit. Anna stays busy homeschooling, gardening, and keeping our household on point and together. Life has been a journey with ups and downs, as we figure out what it means to be married in preparation to spend eternity with Jesus. We are looking forward to diving into God's word together with you and going on a convicting, God-inspired journey this weekend.

As I have spent time fasting and praying regarding you this weekend, we will unpack how we got to where we are today and how to live in humility. "Before destruction, a man's heart is haughty, but humility comes before honor." - Proverbs 18:12

MEET OUR WORSHIP LEADER: WAYNE PIERRE

Wayne Pierre is from Green Bay, WI where he lives with his wife, Sara, and 4 kids ages 10, 13, 15, and 18. He is an elementary music teacher, but his real passion is using his musical gifts to glorify God. For the past 14 years at his church, he has been blessed to lead the youth worship team, which consists of high schoolers, for weekly devotions and practices in preparation for leading worship once a month. It's humbling and fulfilling for him to see God growing the teens to serve and lead in their church. Sara homeschools their kids and co-leads the church's weekly Kids Club for elementary ages. When Wayne is not lesson planning or creating and arranging music for the youth on the worship team, he might be found playing board games or telling Dad jokes to anyone who might listen.
