SPEAKER MATT LEAVESLEY

Matt was born and raised in Alpena. When he was seventeen, a coworker challenged him to read the Bible and that's when the Lord saved him. After graduation he attended CMU. While there he began working and teaching at a local church where he met his wife Ericka. They moved back to Alpena in 2009 and Matt became a bi-vocational pastor who helped plant Fresh Water Bible Church in 2016. Matt and Ericka love playing cribbage, and they have two boys and four girls ranging from three to twenty-one-years-old. Matt also enjoys bass fishing, smoking meat, and listening to a good audio book.
