

Curriculum

The teaching curriculum (sound doctrine, ministry skills, and character development) is based off of how Paul taught and trained Titus and Timothy.

- Sound Doctrine:
 - First Principle Series book one by Jeff Reed as group discussion
 - Gospel Primer by Milton Vincent
 - Gospel Fluency by Jeff Vanderstelt
 - Scripture Journaling
 - Saturate by Jeff Vanderstelt
 - The Gospel-Centered Life
 - Nine Marks Journal: friend of foes? Church and parachurch
 - Nine Marks of a Healthy Church
- Ministry Skills: You will receive teaching on the following topics to enhance your ability to minister at camp and outside of camp.
 - Intro to apologetics
 - Leadership training
 - Communication
 - Servants Heart
 - Each intern will receive specific teaching dependent on what role they are in.
- Character Development
 - One on one meetings with a mentor to develop character and to check in.
- Off-site Learning:
 - Programmers Advance
 - Christian Camp and Conference Association sectional event
- Extras:
 - Financial planning
 - Church involvement
 - Interns will be expected to be involved with a church throughout their time at camp whether that is a church in the area or at home. On the Sundays that they are off they will be expected to attend church.

A Syllabus will be provided to interns once they arrive.
